2023 A Year in Review

A message from your Event Ambassador's

Edition One: December 2023

It's hard to believe a year has flown by since Colette and I joined the Elusive Eagle Golf and Tour Inc. (EE) My goal when I approached the managing partners Bill, Norm and Brian was to bring some female touches to the events and to increase female attendance in our tournaments.

I had been attending the tournaments when they were under Golf Wizard, then transitioned my enrollment to EE but noticed there were many more males than females participating.

This edition celebrates our female participants. Congratulations to our flight winners!!

At this event we introduced the Elusive Eagle – Eagle plaque, and how fantastic is it that Kim KUEN took the first female honors.

EE out and about in the community:

Outside of the Elusive Eagle tournaments the staff attended and sponsored Ladies and Men's nights, co-sponsored a charity golf tournament to raise funds for the Durham Food Bank in Pickering, Ontario, Canada and through word of mouth, to try and get an increase in female participation. I believe our involvement at these events has had a positive impact on an increase in our female participation.

Elusive Eagle also introduced the concept of giving back to the community through a Tunnel to Tower's competition at the Myrtle Beach Classic. A donation of $954 will be made to Tunnels to Towers, a nonprofit foundation, who support first responders and veterans. This will be added to every tournament event.

What a year, from all of us at Elusive Eagle Golf and Tour Inc. A BIG thank you to all of YOU who attended our events.

In 2024 we introduce the following events. The March Spring Tune up in Myrtle Beach. In May, The 8th Las Vegas Open / with a transportation option. New in September 2024 is experience Nashville, with golf and a transportation option available. Once again in November, our Myrtle Beach Classic. Our final new event is Christmas in Branson in December. We have spaces in all the mentioned events. We have also introduced our New Loyalty Program, see our website for complete details.
